FT. SHAFTER SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence) FORT SHAFTER, Dec. 3.—Among those from Shafter who motored out to Schofield Tuesday evening to attend the dinner given by Colonel and Mrs. Keaton were Col. and Mrs. Walter H. Chaffield, Mrs. Tupper, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. B. W. Atkinson, Capt. and Mrs. George H. Jamerson and Capt. and Mrs. William B. Cochran. Later the dinner party attended the "country dance" at the 25th Infantry Club, given as a benefit for the Army Relief Society.

a real treat on Saturday afternoon, when they were entertained at the home of Capt. and Mrs. Paul B. Malone in the main garrison by the Fort Shafter Dramatic Club. The members of this club are Kerwin Malone, Mildred Malone, Robert McKain, Osmond Jamerson, Louise Cochran, Boo Rosenbaum and Robert Bennett, ranging between the ages of 8 and 11 years. The first act of the show consisted of Kerwin Malone drilling his army. The little fellows did exceedingly well and the audience was highly amused. This was followed by the play, "Blue Beard." Mildred Malone as Fatima and Louise Cochran as Sister Ann deserve much credit for their excellent acting, as well as "Blue Beard," who was Robt. McKain and the two brothers, Kerwin Malone and Osmond Jamerson, who come in for their share of praise. This was given by the children for the benefit of the Fort Shafter Savings Club, and they raised quite a neat sum for this worthy cause.

Last Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Rosenbaum invited some of the little folks of the garrison to celebrate the birthday of her small son "Boo." All sorts of games were played, among which "pinning the tail on the donkey" was the most fun. Jack Bennett did so well that he was awarded the first prize. Billy Scott won second prize and little Marion Cochran the "booby." After this came the "real party" for the youngsters and a beautiful birthday cake with seven candles. When the children departed they carried home attractive souvenirs of the occasion. Among Boo's guests were Osmond Jamerson, Louise Cochran, Marion Cochran, Mildred Malone, Billy Scott, Jack Bennett, Bobby Bennett, Kerwin Malone, Tom Harker, Robert McKain.

The 2nd Infantry Club was quite gay on ladies' night. The card club has become so large that the hop room is now being used on Monday night. Mrs. Martin was hostess at the last meeting. Mrs. Pearson, having the highest score for the last evening, was awarded the prize, which was an electric toaster. Among those playing cards were Capt. and Mrs. William B. Cochran, Major and Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Mrs. B. W. Atkinson, Mrs. M. J. Robinson, Mrs. Charles S. Lincoln, Lieut. and Mrs. F. E. Black, Lieut. A. K. B. Lyman, Lieut. and Mrs. John B. Richardson, Madame Cochran, Capt. and Mrs. Jack Hays, Lieut. and Mrs. Clara Bennett, Capt.

and Mrs. Peck, Mrs. Tupper, Lt. and Mrs. Charles R. Abraham, Mrs. Pearson, Lieut. and Mrs. Martin, and Col. and Mrs. Walter H. Chaffield.

Miss Dorothy Trout, house-guest of Capt. and Mrs. William B. Cochran, while getting off the electric car at Fort Shafter Tuesday fell, and after an X-ray was taken of her foot at the Department hospital it was discovered that three small bones were broken. Outside of a certain amount of discomfort Miss Trout has recovered and is able to see her friends. However, her fall will prevent her sailing for the mainland next Monday on the Great Northern as she had planned.

Mrs. William B. Cochran entertained the sewing club in her quarters in the main garrison on Tuesday afternoon. Among those helping with the sewing were Mrs. John Randolph, Mrs. John S. Sullivan, Mrs. William Reese Scott, Madame Cochran, Mrs. Charles H. Lincoln, Mrs. H. W. Atkinson, Mrs. F. E. Black, Mrs. Wheeler and Mrs. Rosenbaum. Later in the afternoon tea was served.

Mrs. Joseph A. McAndrews, accompanied by her two children, Sherey and Pam McAndrews, will leave on the transport sailing Monday for the mainland to spend Christmas with Mrs. McAndrews' mother, Mrs. Brown, at the Presidio, San Francisco. Capt. and Mrs. James E. Bell and son, Jimmy, will also be passengers for San Francisco on the same transport.

Lieut. and Mrs. John B. Richardson entertained on Sunday night with a supper party in their home in the cantonment. Around the attractively decorated table, covers were placed for Capt. and Mrs. George H. Jamerson, Lieut. and Mrs. Clyde R. Abraham, Miss Dorothy Trout, Lieut. Carl Cochran and the host and hostess.

Another supper that same evening was given by Lieut. and Mrs. Lloyd Fredendall in their quarters in the cantonment. Covers were placed for Capt. and Mrs. Charles S. Lincoln, Capt. and Mrs. James E. Bell and Lieut. and Mrs. Joseph A. McAndrews.

The many friends of Mrs. Wooda Grady Jones are delighted to hear that she is convalescing from her recent operation at the Department hospital and hope it will not be long before she will be able to return to her home.

Lieut. and Mrs. John S. Sullivan entertained informally at dinner Wednesday evening in their attractive quarters in the cantonment for Major and Mrs. William R. Dashiell and Mrs. Pearson.

Both Lieut. Col. and Mrs. B. W. Atkinson and Maj. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell have issued invitations to dinner on Friday evening in their quarters in the main garrison.

Lieut. and Mrs. Ely Deshon from Schofield Barracks were the dinner guests on Sunday of Lieut. and Mrs. John S. Sullivan, in their quarters in the cantonment.

Lieut. and Mrs. Carl A. Hardige were host and hostess at an informal dinner on Wednesday evening in their attractive quarters in the cantonment.

Major and Mrs. Van Poole entertained at supper on Sunday evening in honor of Capt. and Mrs. Clarence Day from Schofield Barracks.

Lieut. and Mrs. Wheeler entertained informally at dinner Thursday evening for Lieut. and Mrs. Robert Calder.

SOCIETY AT COAST ARTILLERY POSTS

Regret Death of Mrs. Wilmot Ellis' Father.

The many friends of Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Wilmot Ellis of Fort Ruger will be grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Ellis' father, Mr. Sylvanus Lyon, which occurred November 22 at his home in Short Hills, New Jersey. Mr. Lyon was 91 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Weston, who leave for the East on the Great Northern Monday, will be sincerely missed by their friends in the islands. They are being entertained quite extensively during their last few days here. Wednesday evening Capt. and Mrs. Charles Winn entertained them at dinner. Thursday evening they were the dinner guests of Capt. and Mrs. Sanford French and today Mrs. George Taylor is giving a luncheon at the University Club in Mrs. Weston's honor. From Saturday until Monday they will be the house-guests of Capt. and Mrs. George Taylor of Fort Kamehameha.

The Fort Kamehameha sewing club met with Mrs. Malcolm Andrus Tuesday afternoon. Refreshments of iced tea and sandwiches were served late in the afternoon. Those present were Mrs. Powell Fauntleroy, Miss Katherine Schmidt, Mrs. Guy Gearhart, Mrs. Sanford French, Mrs. Clifford Jones, Mrs. George Taylor, Mrs. Frederick Garvin, Mrs. Ralph Weston, Mrs. Joseph Douglas and Mrs. Malcolm Andrus.

Capt. and Mrs. Norris Stayton of Fort De Russy entertained Thursday evening with an artillery dinner at their quarters. Red roses were used as the table decorations, and dainty Japanese boys and girls holding red lanterns on wires marked the places of the guests, who were Capt. and Mrs. Davis, Dr. and Mrs. Mathews and Mr. and Mrs. Gartenberg. Bridge was the pastime of the evening.

In honor of Capt. Jones' birthday Mrs. Jones was hostess at a prettily appointed dinner Saturday evening. The table was decorated in red carnations with the addition of a beautiful birthday cake adorned with red candles. Each guest found a dainty present at their place tied with red ribbons. Mrs. Jones' guests were Capt. and Mrs. Malcolm Andrus and Capt. and Mrs. George Taylor.

Mrs. Malcolm Andrus of Fort Kamehameha was hostess at a luncheon Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs.

K. Hicks, Mrs. Wientzell and Mrs. Garvey, three friends from the coast who are spending a few weeks at the Seaside Hotel. The table held a centerpiece of yellow sunflowers.

Capt. and Mrs. Charles Winn honored Lieut. and Mrs. Charles Baxter Friday evening with a dinner at their Fort Kamehameha quarters. The guests were Lieut. and Mrs. Charles Baxter, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Frank Cox, and Lieut. and Mrs. John Mather.

Lieut. and Mrs. Guy Gearhart, Lieut. Coleman Jenkins, Lieut. Fordyce Pelego, Lieut. Robert E. Guthrie and Dr. Reeseman formed a theater party from Fort Kamehameha at the performance of Japanese dances at the Hawaiian Opera House Friday evening.

Capt. and Mrs. Norris Stayton motored to Schofield Barracks Tuesday afternoon taking with them Mrs. Edwin J. O'Hara and Mrs. Sherwood. The party were the guests of Lieut. and Mrs. Louis D. McKinlay of the field artillery.

Lieut. Robert Guthrie and Dr. Reeseman enjoyed Sunday evening supper with Lieut. and Mrs. Edwin J. O'Hara of Fort De Russy. Lieut. and Mrs. Rollin Tilton and Lieut. and Mrs. Louis D. Peppin called later in the evening.

Honolulu people motoring to Kamehameha will be glad to know that the new road past the officers' quarters has been completed so it can be entered this side of Watertown. It extends about two miles.

Dr. Reeseman left Fort Kamehameha Wednesday and reported for duty at Fort Ruger, where he will be stationed for two months.

Major and Mrs. Joseph Douglas were the dinner guests Sunday of Capt. and Mrs. George Taylor.

The Fort Kamehameha card club met Friday morning with Mrs. Frederick Garvin.
